

PORTICO™ Hardwood Double Door Range

The Inward/Outward Opening Double Doorset, part of the PORTICO™ Door Range, is made from the finest hardwood which gives this luxury doorset superior weather resistance and enviable aesthetic appeal. As with all of the doors in the PORTICO™ range, the hardwood double doorset can be configured to meet a variety of design requirements, ensuring that there is a product for every building. PORTICO™ doors can accommodate both glazing units and composite fielded panels, as well as side and fan lights giving the customer a wide choice and flexibility. PORTICO™ doors can also be manufactured to Secured by Design where required.

Note: Where Secured by Design is required, this doorset must be configured as outward opening.
